

Maka Wiconi Ta Woope

(Living the Laws of Life)

Igluonihan
(Respect oneself)

Wanaḥ'uḥ ḡi
(Listen and be attentive)

Ihakičikṭaḡi
(Have concern and consideration for one another)

Wakanyeca
(In the womb)

Hoksi čaḡḡkiya ḡi
(Love, care, honor and respect your children)

Kici yuonihanḡi
(Respect each other)

Hoksičala
(Infant)

Wakanyeja
(Child)

Wa awa čin ḡi
(Take responsibility for life)

Wicoṭawačin
gluwaš'akaḡi
(Strengthen your mind)

Wičičala
(Girl)

Hoksila
(Boy)

Wowas'ake
(Be powerful enough to help yourself)

Wikoškalaka
(Young Woman)

Koškalaka
(Young Man)

Teikičihilaḡi
(Love and treasure each other)

Wakta kici yaḡi
(Let others know where you are and what you're doing)

Winyaḡ
(Woman)

Wičaša
(Man)

Wowičala Kičiyuhaḡi
(Have trust in each other and yourself)

Winuḥčala
(One who lives the true life of a woman who is dear to us)

Wičaḥčala
(One who lives the true life of a man who is dear to us)

Wawoḡiya uḡ
(Help others; mentally, physically and spiritually)

Wicoicage
(Growth, development and maturity)

Wowauḡsila
(Have compassion for other beings)

Lakota Virtues and Value System

Produced by Sinte Gleska University Reclaiming Futures

Created by Sandra Black Bear, Rosebud Sioux Tribe Lakota Language Preservation Project Language Teacher
Edited by Albert White Hat, Sr., Sinte Gleska University Lakota Studies Language Instructor