

Data Integrity: Quality Improvement Assessment of the Indianapolis Healthy Start Core Services Tracking System Mobile Access

Presenter: Joy Usigbe, MPH, CLS
Core Services Coordinator
Indianapolis Healthy Start
Marion County Public Health Department

Presentation Objectives

- Learn of existing studies on mobile technology usage during home visits for data entry
- Learn of benefits of having mobile access to database
- Learn of barriers that prevent the usage of mobile technology for accessing database in the field
- Provide Indianapolis Healthy Start (IHS) findings

Highlights

- Benefits and barriers of mobile technology use from existing literature
- Indianapolis Healthy Start Quality Improvement Assessment
- Public Health Significance

Resources

- Keene, A. R. (2016). Tablets Transforming Home Health. King of Prussia: Advance Healthcare Network for Nurses.
- Nyhan, P. (2014, August 7). Technology Holds the Potential to Enhance Home Visiting in Washington and around the Nation.
- PEW Charitable Trust. (2013, July). Developing Capacity for Data-Driven Home Visiting Programs in Massachusetts.