

It “CAN” BE DONE and It “CAN” BE FUN: Intentional, Interactive and Engaging Strategies to establish a viable CAN and Achieve Collective Impact

Presenter: Danette McLaurin Glass, First TEAM America firstteamamerica@aol.com 678-613-7716

Presentation Objectives

- 1) Establish the heartbeat of the CAN's common agenda through intentional shared leadership, ownership and measurement
- 2) Identify the “win-win” for CAN partners to promote retention and purposeful contributions
- 3) Establish a healthy, interactive and engaging CAN environment that encourages growth and sustainability

Highlights

- Understanding the rhythm of Collective Impact in five short “CLAPS”
- 1) “Identify the win-win” for CAN partners to keep them coming back with enthusiasm and resources; 2) Establish an environment that promotes healthy relationships and exchanges; 3) Determine mutually reinforcing activities to impact CAN's common agenda; 4) Establish the heartbeat of the CAN's movement through shared leadership, ownership and measurement ; 5) Utilize EPIC toolbox for applying the five collective impact phases during CAN meetings.

Resources

- 1) Sample CAN documents; 2) Sample team building/partner appreciation activities; 3) EPIC toolbox references; 4) Examples of stakeholders contributions; 5) Collaborative projects to achieve collective impact.
- PPT and Videos