

MY STORY, MY WAY

with STEPHANYE CLARKE, SISTACARE

WHILE READING a MAGAZINE, I READ STARTLING STATISTICS about BLACK FOLKS and HIV/AIDS

TO consider

- DO YOUR RESEARCH
- ENGAGE OTHERS
- RESILIENCE
- INTEGRITY
- CONSISTENCY

HOW MY FRIENDS SEE ME

HAVE BLACK PEOPLE on RESEARCH TEAMS

DON'T be AFRAID to SPEAK UP WHEN YOU SEE BLIND-SPOTS from ORGS that DON'T HAVE BLACK CULTURAL FLUENCY

SHOW HOW TUNNEL VISION of EXCLUDES BLACK FOLKS and EXPERIENCE

DON'T be AFRAID to DRAW LINES

DO I WANT to OPEN the DOOR to SOMEONE WHO MAY CAUSE HARM to MY COMMUNITIES

SINCE

I MOVED INTO PUBLIC HEALTH & DISEASE, THEN PHILANTHROPY AND BACK to PH - I HAD NO DEGREE;

EVERY TIME

A PROJECT HAD to BE WHEN I AM REPORTING from the POPULATION WE are SERVING,

I AM an EXPERT!

AS BLACK PEOPLE, WE OFTEN STRUGGLE to VALUE ourselves WE HAVE DIFFICULTY with

COMPLIMENTS

YOU are VALUABLE
